If you want to give a Goebelite the buck ague, just say "Mountaineer!"

BECKHAM'S "apology" for calling out the military is worse than the offense.

If that corruption fund only holds out TOM CAMPBELL will be able to arrest the whole Republican party of Kentucky.

UNAUTHORIZED militia "Captains" who are going about seizing guns and armories in Kentucky may "strike a knot." The guns belong to Uncle Sam, and not to the state of Kentucky, and the old gentleman might take a notion to have them returned to the proper custodians.

"COLONEL" TOM CAMPBELL has contributed to Saxby's Magazine an article on "The Goebel Law," in which he refers to THE LEDGER man thusly— "I will not allude to the more filthy and venomous, but less able, bids for murder made by such puerile creatures as THOMAS A. DAVIS of Maysville and SAMMY ROBERTS of Lexington."

Thanks, "Kurnel," THE LEDGER does feel a trifle "young and frisky" when dealing with such old and hardened sinners as yourself; and we're right glad you placed us in such excellent company as "SAMMY" ROBERTS.

ANY person who was at all observant of conditions at Frankfort on the 29 of January last, and who was possessed that bloodshed was the most likely thing to follow. Hence it was that it was predicted in many quarters—and even on a streetcar in Maysville—that the killing of either Senator GOEBEL or Governor TAYLOR, or both, within twenty-four hours need not be surprising.

As evidence of this widespread belief, "Fairplay" writes from Owensboro to The Louisville Post under date of March 22d—

"A Goebelite friend, one who voted and worked for GOEBEL, called this morning with two or three posers. He wished to know why POWERS, DAVIS and CULTON are not tried. Also why nobody knows, or nobody will tell, what evidence there is against them. He wants the man who killed GOEBEL punished, but he does not understand why the prosecution refuses to disclose who the witnesses are against the accused. This, he says, is not fair. If they are so certain a Negro shot GOEBEL, how about WHITTAKER shooting him? These are questions fair-minded supporters of GOEBEL are asking down here. If satisfactory proof of the alleged guilt of those under arrest is not forthcoming the people will lose all patience.

"Evidence that statements had been made that GOEBEL would be killed amount to very little. When a man who has killed his man provokes men as violent as himself it is common to predict that he will die with his boots on. In the month of January last it is safe to say that in the state of Kentucky a hundred thousand men either said or thought that WILLIAM GOEBEL would probably never be Governor, or if he did that he would never live out his term.

"Showing the temper of the people is this incident: In the forenoon of January 30th last, a party of gentlemen were assembled in an office in this city discussing HUDSON on 'Psychic Phenomena.' One of the points asserted by the author was that when the minds of a whole community all agreed in expecting a certain event to occur, there was nothing more probable than its occurrence. 'Now, for example,' said one, 'perhaps a thousand people in the state are right now expecting to hear of a conflict at Frankfort in which GOEBEL will be killed, and nothing is more probable than the occurrence of such an event.'

"In five minutes after this philosophic deduction the news of the shooting was flying over town. However shocked all may have been by the occurrence, yet no one at all observant of events can say it was wholly unexpected.

"When a man doth compass or imagine the death of our Lord, the King, of our Lady, his Queen, or of the eldest son and heir," is the way BLACKSTONE defines one branch of high treason in England. But imagining a man's death has never been a crime in this country, be he high or low. If it were the multitude of criminals would be numbered by the thousands just now."

THE "great common people" of Kentucky are preparing to serve notice on politicians of the Goebel school to "step down and out." They have had enough of it.

THE Court of Appeals refused to hold sessions at Frankfort because Governor TAYLOR had quartered a few soldiers in the Capitol Building. But the Franklin County Court is trying to implicate a lot of men in the murder of Senator GOEBEL, with the Court-house packed with soldiers placed there by order of BECKHAM! Oh, consistency! thou art a damned fraud!

"OLD DAN MOORE," as he calls himself, refused to recognize Governor TAYLOR's pardon in the case of CALEB POWERS, on trial for mere suspicion, when it was presented by ex-Governor JOHN YOUNG BROWN. Wonder if "Old DAN" would have recognized Governor BROWN's ante-trial pardon of WILLIAM GOEBEL for the actual murder of poor JOHN SANDFORD?

"OLD DAN MOORE," as the Judge of the Franklin County Court somewhat egotistically calls himself, in determining the case of Secretary of State CALEB POWERS, delivered himself thus—

"I do not believe CALEB POWERS fired the shot that killed Senator GOEBEL," he said slowly, "but I think he was engaged in the conspiracy to cause Senator GOEBEL's death. I therefore hold him to answer before the Grand Jury without bail."

It was real generous in "Old DAN" not to believe that POWERS fired the fatal shot—especially when TOM CAMPBELL's own star witness GOLDEN swore that POWERS was at Lagrange, some forty miles from Frankfort, when GOEBEL was shot!

An Honest Medicine For La Grippe.
George W. Walt, of South Gardner, Mo., says: "I have had the worst cold, cough, and grip, and have taken lots of trash of no account but profit to the vendor. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the only thing that has done any good whatever. I have used one bottle of it and the cold, cough and grip have all left me. I congratulate the manufacturers of an honest medicine." For sale by J. J. Wood & Son.

CONTESTANT'S MAIL.
The Postmaster General Gives Instructions to the Postmaster at Frankfort, Ky.

Washington, March 29.—The postmaster general has sent the following telegram to Postmaster Holmes at Frankfort:

"Replying to your telegram, mail addressed to official persons by name is to be delivered to the persons named. Mail addressed to state officers, without designation by name, is to be delivered to the actual incumbents of the offices. The mere fact that contest board has given certificate to contestants will not justify delivery of mail of latter class to them until they are lawfully inducted into office. This reply is based upon your statement that contestants still hold the offices."

This order was issued on the 28th of last month, though it was never made public. Postmaster General Smith said that he did not care to give it out here, but had expected to see it published in Kentucky.

HOME IN A HOLLOW TREE.

An Aged Man's Queer Actions Lead Him to Be Brought Into the Court.

Louisville, Ky., March 29.—August Buermann, an aged man, was presented in the circuit court on the charge of vagrancy. It developed that Buermann, who was for many years a butcher in this city, has for ten years past been living in the western part of the county. About six months ago he took up his abode in a hollow tree and fitted it up as a den. He lived there during the winter and subsisted mainly by fishing.

A number of petty depredations caused a warrant to be issued for him, but he bluffed the officer with a club. He has been frightening women and children in the neighborhood. Relatives will probably take him in charge.

FIVE PERSONS HURT.

A Passenger Train on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Runs Into a Freight.

Glasgow, Ky., March 29.—The south-bound Louisville & Nashville passenger train ran into a freight train which was entering a switch at Cave City. The engineer reversed his engine and stuck to his post, the machine going over on its side. Four freight cars were wrecked. Five passengers were hurt, none seriously. The injured are:

Mrs. F. L. Bowen, Louisville.
Mrs. S. A. Hollinsbee, Canton, Miss.
Mrs. Sarah Chambers, Harrodsburg, Ky.
J. N. Teague, Jackson, Tenn.
J. S. Coleman, Lebanon, Ky.

Will Sue for Damages.

Lexington, Ky., March 29.—As a result of a mistake of trainmen on the Southern road in Kentucky, Mrs. Annie Thurman, of Harrodsburg, Ky., has an attorney here investigating for a heavy damage suit. She says that she boarded a train here to go home last Tuesday and wore a veil and that passengers told the trainmen that she was a Negress and had her removed to the colored coach. They apologized when they learned their mistake and she was allowed to go home in a white coach. Her husband declares that he will sue for damages.

The Shops Will Be Removed.

Bowling Green, Ky., March 29.—The L. & N. shops located here for years will be moved to Paris, Tenn., taking with them several hundred employees and the biggest railroad business enjoyed by this city. The removal is said to have been due to the bitter fight made against the L. & N. by the democrats in Kentucky and Bowling Green. The shops have been closed down. They will be dismantled and only a small repair shop left.

Cases Come Up Monday.

Louisville, Ky., March 29.—The court of appeals has decided to take up the consolidated governorship cases on appeal next Monday. The court will sit in Louisville for this purpose. It is believed by the lawyers concerned that the appellate judges will immediately take the case under consideration, rendering a decision as soon as possible after the hearing.

Taylor Granted a Requisition.

Frankfort, Ky., March 29.—Deputy Marshal William Lambert, of Central Covington, came here Wednesday and secured a requisition from Republican Governor Taylor on Governor Nash, of Ohio, for the extradition of Jacob Craig, who is under arrest in Cincinnati. Craig is wanted in Central Covington for malicious shooting.

Alleged Assassin Held.

Paduach, Ky., March 29.—Gip Orlson, a horse dealer, charged with detaining Mrs. Frank Henderson, the wife of a well-known farmer near Wickliffe, against her will, about a year ago, has just been arrested here. He has been in Louisville.

Received Its Charter.

Louisville, Ky., March 29.—The State Federation of Labor, formed here January 25 and 26, has just received its charter. Henry Crandall also received his credentials as organizer for Kentucky.

Mob Was Wrong.

Columbia, Ky., March 29.—Max Jennings, who was taken to Burdetteville for fear of mob violence, was tried for the alleged murder of Arch Merley last fall and acquitted.
